

Participatory Budgeting San Francisco

Real Money. Real Projects. Your District.

Participatory Budgeting is a public voting process that empowers residents of San Francisco's District 10 to come together, work together, and decide how money is spent in your District.

We hope you can join us for these upcoming meetings, hosted by District 10 Supervisor Malia Cohen's office, to learn more about the Participatory Budgeting process, how to propose a project, and how to cast your vote!

Kickoff Meeting #1

Saturday, March 29, 2014, 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

The Village

1099 Sunnydale Avenue

Kickoff Meeting #2

Wednesday, April 2, 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

California College of the Arts

350 Kansas Street

Learn more about the Participatory Budgeting process, what projects can be proposed, how to submit your ideas, and meet fellow residents of District 10.

Project Vetting Meeting

Thursday, April 17, 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
